

Govt College Kullu College Activity

Sr. No.	Particulars	Remarks
1	Date	01-03-2023
2.	Name of Activity	India's G-20 Presidency Leveraging Neighbourhood Youth Parliament at District Level
3	Name of Unit/Agency/Department Organizing the Activity	NSS unit GC Kullu
4	Name of Collaborating Agency (If Any)	Nehru Yuva Kendra Kullu
5	No. of Student Participants	250
6	No. of Teacher Participants	20
7	Brief Report: Courtesy of Nehru Yuva Kendra Kullu, Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India, district level neighborhood youth parliament program was organized in Government College Kullu with the help of National Service Scheme. The NSS Programme Officer Dr. Shashi Sharma welcomed the Chief Guest, Resource Person, Faculty Members of Govt College and addressing the youth present in his address, it was said that it is a matter of pride for India to have the presidency of the G-20. The program was inaugurated by the chief guest Dr. Sujata Principal (Incharge) Government College Kullu by lighting the lamp and and the Saraswati Vandana. In this program, Ved Ram Thakur, President of CWC took a session regarding G-20, along with Dr. Ratnesh Professor Economics Government College Kullu G-20 is held every year in which all 20 countries discuss the socio-economic issues. Every year the chance to chair it is given to a different country, which India has the bar. In the second session, Dr. Chandrakanta Krishi Vigyan Kendra Bajaura gave information on coarse grains. Coarse grains should be named nutritious grains. Every type of nutritional element is present in this grain. Coarse grains include millet, ragi, kodara etc. Same third session Youth's thinking is being given a platform through Y-20 taken by President's Awarded Sumit Thakur. Jatin Negi, ITI Kullu, Government College Panartsa, Nista Computer Center, Khushbu, Dhanwanti of cultural programs in the program, State College Kullu, Kullav, Nait etc. were presented. Superintendent of Police Sakshi Verma attended the closing ceremony. Sakshi Verma addressed the youth and women for the prevention of drug addiction. He said that today in our country about 28 crore people from laborers earning Rs. Consume intoxicants like cannabis, hashish, opium and drugs. And the most worrying thing is that along with women, small children are also increasingly becoming victims of this addiction. These drug addicts spend from ₹ 10 to ₹ 100 per day on these intoxicants. At the end of the program, Police Superintendent Sakshi Verma questioned the children about drug addiction and also asked for suggestions from children to reduce the effect of drug addiction. At the end of the program, District Youth Officer Sonika Chandra, District Youth Officer, Nehru Yuva Kendra Kullu thanked everyone. She said that involving the rural youth in the activities of nation building. To develop such skills and values in them so that they can become responsible and creative citizens of a modern, secular and technological nation. She thanked all the dignitaries, all the teachers of Govt College Kullu, volunteers of National Service Scheme (NSS) for the successful organization of the program.

Organizer

Principal
Govt. College Kullu (H.P)

India's G-20 Presidency Leveraging Neighbourhood Youth Parliament at District Level

