7	Brief Report सांक्षिप्त प्रविष्टि	The Literary Society Function was organized at Govt. College Kullu on 8th September 2026 by the Departments of English and Hindi. The function was organized to provide students with a platform for literary expression, intellectual engagement, creative expression and cultural participation. The programme commenced with the National Song, followed by the lighting of the lamp and Saraswati Vandana. The Chief Guest, Dr Rakesh Rana, Principal of the College, was formally honoured and welcomed. The formal welcome was delivered by Dr Charu Ahluwalia, Head of the Department of English, followed by the address of the Chief Guest. Stage compering throughout the programme was also carried out by students. The literary activities began with declamation in English, followed by a cultural performance, and were followed by declamation in Hindi and another cultural performance. The students participated enthusiastically and demonstrated confidence, clarity of expression and public-speaking skills. The programme then featured a debate in both English and Hindi, in which students got an opportunity to present their views, engage with different perspectives and demonstrate critical thinking, reasoning and articulation. Alongside these stage activities, several creative competitions were conducted simultaneously, including Rangoli Making, Poster Making, Collage Making, Clay Modelling, Painting and Cartooning. Students showcased their imagination, originality, aesthetic sense and creative abilities through these activities. The quiz competition was subsequently conducted, in which students demonstrated alertness, curiosity, quick thinking and a broad awareness of general and contemporary matters relating to Himachal Pradesh, India and the international context. The winners of the various competitions were then awarded prizes in recognition of their performance and to motivate them to continue participating in literary, intellectual and creative activities. The programme concluded with the formal Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr Rupa Thakur, Head of the Department of Hindi, followed by the National Anthem. The function provided a holistic platform for students to participate in literary, intellectual, creative and cultural activities and reflected their enthusiastic involvement throughout the programme.
