6	Brief Report संक्षिप्त प्रतिवेदन	The Department of Music, Government College Kullu, Himachal Pradesh, organised a vibrant musical and cultural programme entitled "Sangeetras" on 3rd September, 2026 at the Multipurpose Hall of the college. The programme was organised with the objective of providing a platform to students to showcase their musical and cultural talents and to promote an appreciation of music and performing arts among the college community. The programme was graced by Dr. Rakesh Rana, Principal, Government College Kullu, as the Chief Guest. The event commenced with the traditional and auspicious ceremony of Deep Prajjwalan (lighting of the ceremonial lamp) by the Chief Guest, symbolising the spread of knowledge, wisdom and positivity. This was followed by a soulful Saraswati Vandana presented by the students of the Department of Music, seeking the blessings of Goddess Saraswati. Thereafter, a series of musical performances began, making the atmosphere lively and melodious. Students of the Department of Music, along with students from other departments of the college, enthusiastically participated in the programme. A variety of musical genres were presented, including Geet, Ghazal, Bhajan, film songs and Rap. The diversity of performances reflected the musical interests and creative abilities of the students. Each presentation was warmly appreciated by the audience and added a unique flavour to the programme. Besides the musical presentations, the students also performed a One-Act Play, which added a theatrical dimension to the event and demonstrated their acting and creative skills. One of the major attractions of the programme was the energetic Himachali Mix Nati, which beautifully represented the rich folk culture and traditional heritage of Himachal Pradesh. The colourful and enthusiastic performance created a festive atmosphere in the hall and received an overwhelming response from the audience. The programme proved to be a wonderful experience for both the participants and the audience. It provided the students with an opportunity to express their creativity, gain confidence and develop their stage-performance skills. The event also highlighted the importance of music and cultural activities in the overall personality development of students. The programme concluded with an inspiring and enthusiastic address by the Chief Guest, Dr. Rakesh Rana. He appreciated the efforts of the Department of Music, the participating students and all those involved in organising the event. He encouraged the students to continue participating actively in musical and cultural activities alongside their academic pursuits. Overall, "Sangeetras" was a memorable and successful programme that celebrated music, creativity, cultural heritage and the enthusiastic participation of the students of Government College Kullu.
